Firm overview

Hossamy Law firm was founded by Bahgat H. El Hossamy B.A. of law, Cairo University – holder of a Masters degree from the International Business Institute (I.D.A.I) and former district attorney and chief-Judge.

The firm is geared towards providing dependable and highly professional legal services specialized in matters of corporate, commercial law, and the various subjects that these vast branches of law involve.

In keeping with this purpose, we provide such sophisticated services along with a will to remain fully informed of the ever evolving legal and commercial environments, on the international level.

The firm offers consultation and litigation services to clients seeking consultation on questions pertaining to all branches of business law.

To name a few of the specializations being offered, the firm also offers advice on all matters pertaining to laws governing commercial laws, company laws, banking, finance, contract laws, capitalization, commercial arbitration, and intellectual property rights.

The firm can be ranked among the trend of the newly emerging Egyptian law firms that offer the sort of high profile and sophisticated services essential for providing a coherent and stable legal environment for foreign investments in Egypt. Thus great attention is afforded towards assuring foreign investors of Egypt's sound investment climate.

In addition to the above, the firm offers its services in English, French and Arabic; and has an extensive law library covering wide aspects of Egyptian as well as comparative jurisprudence and court decisions, offering by this a truly international legal service.
